

Knowing a saint

One time one Sadhu was laying on the road...

At that time one man was passing by...

Who
is this sleeping in
the middle of road...

Aa haa!! to me he
looks like a thief, I should
immediately
inform the police...

So he ran to call the police...

Then came a drunker...

I thought I
am the most fallen but just
see this
person he has
drunk more
than me...

After speaking such words the drunkard left the place...

Then came another sage...

Oh!! he is a saintly person and it seems he is praying to the Lord...by paying full prostrated obeisances

I pray to the Lord that he may fulfill all your prayers...

Moral: Only a saint can identify another saint. Common people often misunderstand a saintly person.
