

THE AXE & THE TREE

An axe was once talking to a tree..

I am stronger than you.

Why do you say so?

I am very sharp and strong. I can cut you down to pieces.

Oh! Please do not do so.

Then you have to accept that I am superior to you. I can destroy your entire race.

You cannot do anything unless I first give you one of my branches for a handle

MORAL :

The mayavadis (impersonalists) take help of sanatana dharma to propogate their philosophy and ultimately their goal is to kill the sanatana dharma
