All glories, all glories to the beautiful ārati ceremony of Lord Caitanya. This Gaura-ārati is taking place in a grove on the banks of the Jāhnavī [Ganges] and is attracting the minds of all living entities in the universe.

On Lord Caitanya's right side is Lord Nityānanda, and on His left is Śrī Gadādhara. Nearby stands Śrī Advaita, and Śrīvāsa Ṭhākura is holding an umbrella over Lord Caitanya's head.

Lord Caitanya has sat down on a jeweled throne, and the demigods, headed by Lord Brahmā, perform the ārati ceremony.

sañjaya-mukunda-bāsu-ghoṣ-ādi gāya

Narahari Sarakāra and other associates of Lord Caitanya fan Him with cāmaras, and devotees headed by Sañjaya Paṇḍita, Mukunda Datta, and Vāsu Ghoṣa sing sweet kīrtana.

(5)

śaṅkha bāje ghaṇṭā bāje bāje karatāla madhura mṛdaṅga bāje parama rasāla śaṅkha bāje ghaṇṭā bāje
madhur madhur madhur bāje

Conchshells, bells, and karatālas resound, and the mṛdaṅgas play very sweetly. This kīrtana music is supremely sweet and relishable to hear.

1. He whose name is Krishna, and whose abode is Gokula- unto such a Supreme Personality of Godhead, I offer my most humble obeisances again and again.
2. He whose mother is Yashoda, and whose father is Nandaji- unto such a cowherd boy named Gopal; I offer my most humble obeisances again and again.
3. He whose beloved is Radha, and whose illusory energy is very amazing- unto He whose splendorous complexion is the color of a fresh rain cloud; I offer my most humble obeisances again and again.
4. He who sneaks around to steal yogurt and butter, then hides to eat it, and who tends the cows in the company of His cowherd boyfriends - unto He who is the reservoir of playful pastimes, I offer my most humble obeisances again and again.
5. He who prevented the dishonoring of the daughter of Drupad, and who delivered the elephant Gajendra from the grasp of the alligator- unto He who is the abode of all compassion, I offer my most humble obeisances again and again.
6. He who caused the great war between the Kurus and the Pandavas and who spoke divine instructions to Arjuna on the battlefield- unto He who is the Lord of all the helpless fallen souls, I offer my most humble obeisances again and again.
