

STORY TELLING

This game is meant for children well versed in Krishna Book. By reciting one Hare Krishna mantra a child is selected to choose and tell a story. But he tells it purposely making funny mistakes from time to time.

For example, he will say, "Krishna stole the gopis chapattis (instead of clothes) and hung them on a tree", or "Mother Yashoda ran after Krishna with a cow (instead of a stick) in her hand". The other children must correct the mistakes
