HUNTER AND THE BIRDS

INSTRUCTIVE STORIES FROM SRILA PRABHUPADA
There was a hunter who wanted to practice his shooting
So he took some birds
And released them.
The birds flew away and all of them were shot.
One bird was very cunning
Instead of flying away he placed himself at the feet of the hunter.
Being so situated, the hunter could not shoot the bird without harming himself.
MORAL:

Instead of flying away from Krsna and being shot down by maya, we should take shelter of Krsna's feet and then maya cannot touch us.

- Srila Prabhupada