A clerk was making a fair book from the rough book.
Suddenly he went to the store room
He was jumping into the air
Leaping around the room
All of a sudden his boss came in.

What are you doing here?
Sir, I am trying to capture one fly
But why?
I am following your instruction as it is. I am making the fair copy from the old book.
There is a fly smashed and stuck in the old book. Hence, I am trying to capture a fly so that I can stick to the new copy.
MORAL:

They are such fools. Maksi manda kanani. Blind following. Speculating on the rules and regulations. Someone said, so now everyone follows.
